

Welcoming the Other

through Religious and Interreligious Education

Reverend Peter Morales, President
Unitarian Universalist Association (USA)

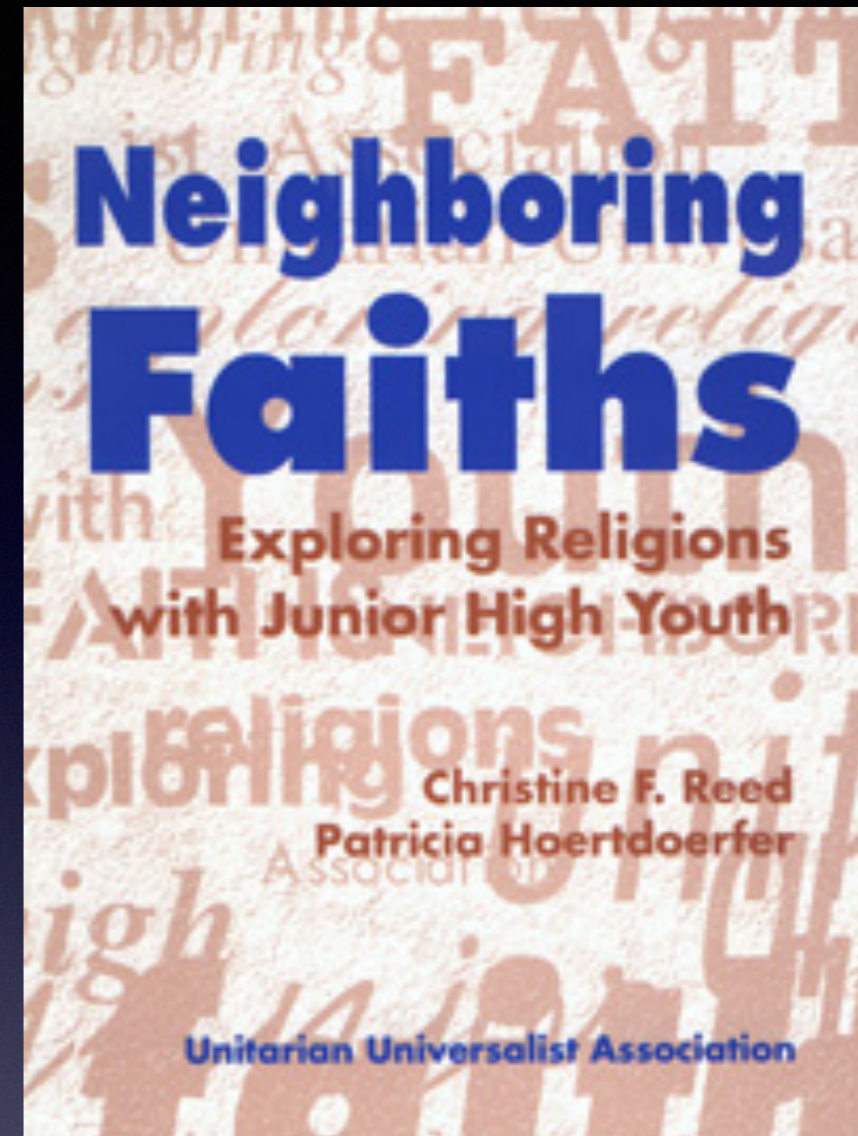

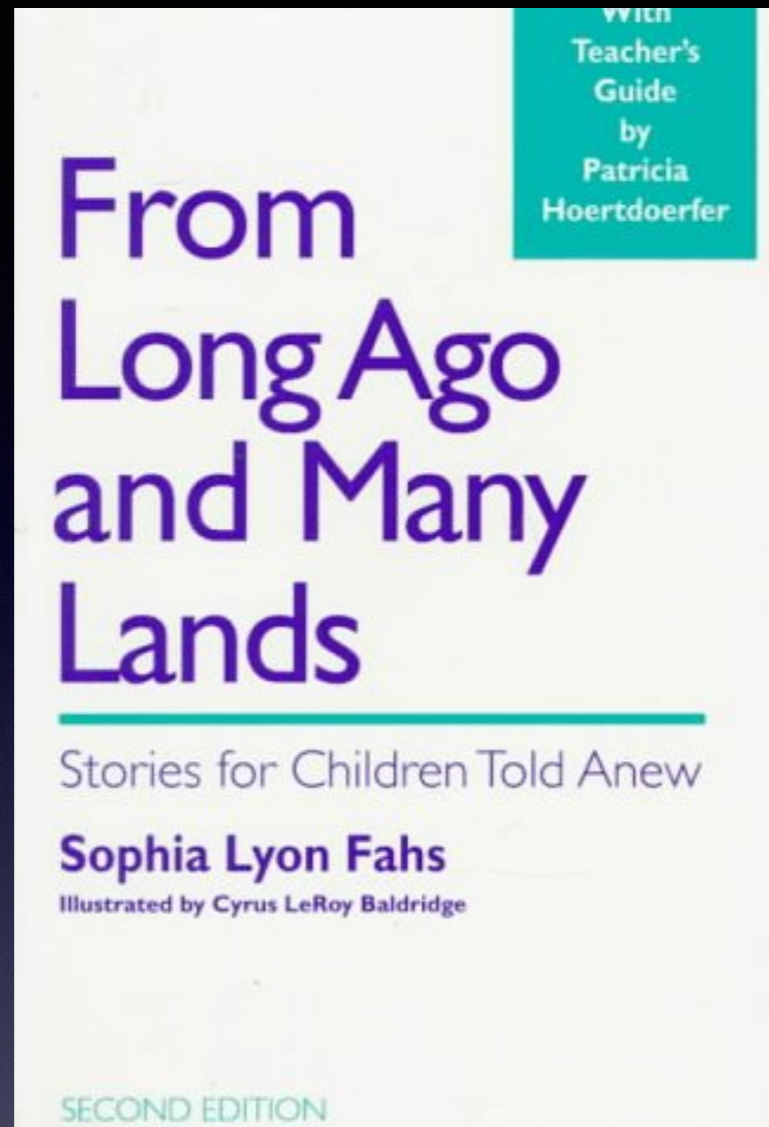

Rev. Nikkyo Niwano and Rev. Dana Greeley with interpreter

Early Discussions about establishing WCRP

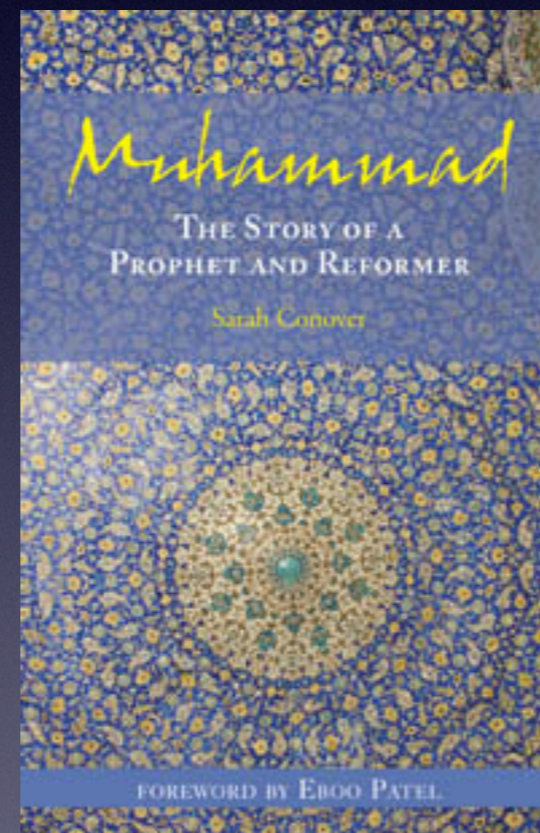

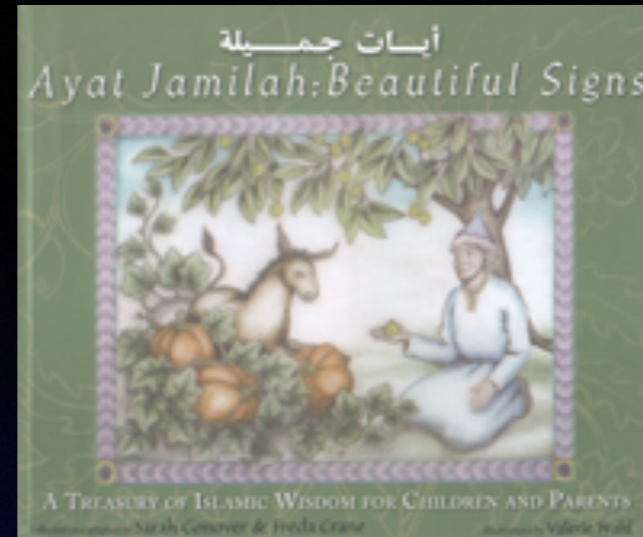

‘Welcoming the Other’ has always been central

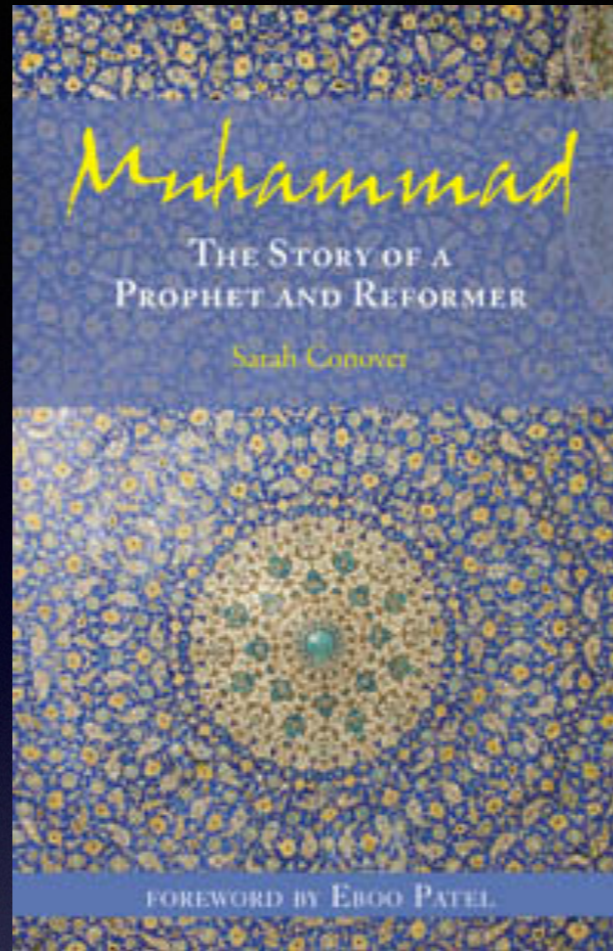

Reverend Sophia Lyon Fahs
Pioneer in Interreligious Education 1876-1978

Interreligious Education resources from the 1940s profoundly impacted current materials

Recent UUA Interreligious publications
by Sarah Conover

Conscientious publications by interreligious allies can be very helpful... This book, written for readers 12 and up, tells the story of a radical prophet who challenged the rich and powerful... We hope it will impact our UU Youth, but be useful in multiple interreligious contexts

I was told the target audience of this book is young people, and so I started reading who are honestly struggling it with two sets of eyes: the eyes of a against bigotry and ignorance Muslim father who is constantly on the
 This is a useful material in the hands of truth seekers and people understanding of their faith and the eyes of an interfaith leader. Both sets of eyes found much Dr. Sayyid M. Syeed, National Director, Office for Interfaith & Community Alliances, Islamic Society of North America and President, Interfaith Youth Core

Eboo Patel, founder of Interfaith Youth Corps, at UUA General Assembly 2013

S

About Academics Admis

Graduate Theological Union

Home » About

Quick Facts

Founded by ecumenical pioneers in 1962, the Graduate Theological Union in Berkeley, California, is the largest and most diverse partnership of seminaries and graduate schools in the United States. Our interfaith approach attracts leading theologians, scholars of religion, and students from around the world who are pursuing new models for interreligious collaboration in teaching, research, ministry, and service.

Site Search

Courses About us Programs Centers Affiliates Libraries

Truly Ecumenical

Broaden your theological perspective by learning from institutions of various religious affiliations.

Welcoming the Other

through Religious and Interreligious Education

Reverend Peter Morales, President
Unitarian Universalist Association (USA)

