

COP27

Realizing Ambition through Ethical, Intergenerational and Multisectoral Responses to Climate Crises

Sharm El-Sheikh

Wednesday, 9 November 2022

Room 6 - Osiris, 15:00 – 16:30 EET

\(Click Here for Your Local Time\)

Theme: Making the leap from science to policy requires centring human values over short-term gains. Featuring diverse stakeholders, this event addresses root causes of climate crises and highlights collaborative actions based on ethics, values and integrity that result in innovative and durable solutions.

Primary Thematic Category: Enhancing knowledge, inclusion & enablers for action

Secondary Thematic Categories: Capacity building; Cooperative approaches; Youth

15:00 – 15:01 Moment of Silence

15:01 – 15:05 Welcoming Remarks and Framing

- Prof. Dr. Azza Karam, Secretary General, Religions for Peace International

15:05 – 15:15 Keynote Address

- H.E. Mr. Bakoa Kaltongga, Vanuatu, Special Envoy on Climate Change

15:15 – 16:15 Moderated Interactive Session

Moderator: Mr. Daniel Perell, Bahá'í International Community, United States

Video Messages

- H.E. Ms. Maria Fernanda Espinosa, Former Minister of Foreign Affairs and of Defence of Ecuador, Former President of the UN General Assembly, Former UN PGA, Member of the Group of Women Leaders, Ecuador
- H.E. Judge Mohamed Abdelsalam, Senior Representative of His Eminence Grand Imam of Al-Azhar; Secretary-General of the Muslim Council of Elders; Co-President, Religions for Peace, Egypt

Speakers

- Bishop Julio Murray Thompson, Bishop of Anglican Diocese of Panama and Chairman of the Anglican Communion Environmental Network
- Ms. Amal Sarah, Youth Climate Leader from Church of Pakistan
- Ms. Aouf Saida, President, Harmony & Peace Association, Algeria

Videos

- From Around the World – Faith in Action
- Dharma Master Ms. De Yuan, Jing Si Abode of the World of Tzu Chi, Taiwan

16:25 – 16:30 Concluding Remarks

- Ms. Bani Dugal, Co-President, Religions for Peace